When the class Marshall, James Fairweather, leads the two hundred odd students of the Class of 1972 out to the High School field, on June 11th Richard Keane, High School scholar and athlete, will be the Class Valedictorian.

The Salutatorian is to be Richard Hogg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas M. Hogg of Columbia Street, and the Essayist David Doucette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Doucette of Oakdale Road.

The Class Will, for the Class of 1972, was prepared by Michael Harrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Harrington of Fairmeadow Road. Martin Kelley, son of Police Sgt. and Mrs. Arthur Kelley of Shawshen Avenue has the Class Prophecy, and Richard Buck, son of Mrs. Barbara Buck of Chestnut Street is Class Historian.

Graduation exercises start at 4 pm, June 11th.

HEALTH PLANNING COUNCIL TO MEET JUNE 8TH

The Health Planning Council of Greater Boston, Inc., Area 315 (Arlington, Burlington, Lexington, Wilmington, Winchester and Woburn) extends an invitation to attend the meetings which are open to the public.

The next meeting will be held at Choate Memorial Hospital on Thursday, June 8th at 8 pm.

IT DIDN'T START

Robert Dorval of 69 Park St. probably did not get to work on time, if he worked, last Saturday. At 8:20 am he reported to the police that someone had stolen the battery out of his car.

Walk for Hunger - A different Story

This coming Sunday hundreds of youngsters are going to "Walk for Hunger", starting at Wilmington Common and going to Billerica, a walk that is planned to be twenty-five miles in length. There was such a walk in Boston, last weekend.

Mrs. Thomas Michaud, of School Street, has a story to tell of that walk. She participated, and she saw an incident which was reported on TV. Her story is different.

The TV news, at 11 pm, finished off with the story - the "punch line". It told how a boy who was taking part had been knocked out and robbed of fifty cents by two black boys, at Franklin Park.

What the TV did not tell was that a black man came up and picked up that boy, and offered him $1, to compensate for the fifty cents. The boy did not want to accept, but the man made him take it.

OFFICER LYNCH JUST YAWNED

Someone, last Friday, threatened to blow up the Police Station at 12 noon. Officer Willie Lynch, desk officer, had forgotten about the threat, when the time came at noon. In fact things were so quiet he just yawned.

The threat came by telephone at 8:50 am from an unidentified male voice. The station was searched, just to be certain, and then by 10 am everyone had forgotten about it.

From seven words to Twenty

Business is very good for Al LeGault of Wilmington. He moved into town less than a year ago, and he put a seven word advertisement in the Trading Post section of the Town Crier.

Al is a handy man. He does a lot of things. As a result of the business he got from that seven word ad, he has added two employees, to help him do things.

And now Al has increased that ad - at no extra cost - from seven words to twenty.

A Van for CITA

BERNICE BUTLER,
WOMEN'S CLUB PRESIDENT

Mrs. Malcolm S. Butler of 13 West Street was recently installed as president of the Wilmington Women's Club. A long time resident of Wilmington, she has been active in the Women's Club for the past 10 years and has had service on many committees.

Installed as Vice President was Mrs. Norman E. Pederson of Federal Street; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Frank Darling, Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. James Low; Treasurer, Mrs. Winthrop S. Polsey, and Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. John J. Waugh.

The Board of Directors for one year, Mrs. Albert H. Marfleet and Mrs. William E. Traer; for two years, Mrs. Raymond C. Booth and Mrs. Raleigh Nelson. The Chairman of the Nominating Committee was Mrs. Frederick W. Press. Correspondent is Mrs. Walter Bennett.

The Women's Club will be holding their annual plant sale at the home of Mrs. Norman Pederson on Federal Street next Thursday, at which geraniums, annuals and perennials will be offered for sale.

The club is sponsoring a swim suit lecture and demonstration, to be presented by the Middlesex County Extension Service, at the Wilmington VFW Hall on Wednesday May 31st, and Wednesday, June 7th from 10 to 11:30 am. To obtain full benefit from the program of making swimsuits of the new stretch fabrics, it will be necessary to attend both sessions.

One of the Missions supported by the Wilmington Congregational Church, and others is called GLEAM, an acronym for Greater Lowell Ecumenical Area Ministry.

It was through GLEAM that the members of the church learned of CITA, a rehabilitation center for drug addicts, located at 6 Wells Street, in the Arlington district of Lawrence.

Director of CITA is Jose DeJesus, a former addict, who has become a fully licensed agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. CITA has two acronyms, one in English (Christ is the Answer) and one in Spanish (Appointment). It is basically oriented to the Spanish speaking community, but has long since spread into all races and classes, in which the drug habit exists.

It is based on a deep conviction that the problem with drug dependency is basically a spiritual one, having to do with the loss of a personal sense of meaning and an inability to identify with a reality greater than oneself.

CITA believes that every young person who has become addicted to drugs has also become addicted to a meaningful and responsible life, and that it is the purpose of CITA to help each such person to attain that life. It is based on the experiences of eight young people, who, after many attempts found their way back to meaningful lives through the spiritual friendship therapy which is now incorporated in the program. The director, Jose DeJesus, was himself an addict for seven years during which time he sought help from all the medical and psychiatric services available.

Mr. DeJesus finally came into contact with "Teen Challenge", a program with spiritual therapy. He successfully cured himself of drug dependency, and went on to help others.

It soon became apparent that Mr. DeJesus had a special ability to help others addicted to the use of drugs, and one by one he has fulfilled the requests of friends for such help, following them through their progress to a gainful employment program.

Believing his experience placed him on a particular responsibility, he resigned from Metropolitan in order to devote himself full time to this work.

The CITA program, in Lawrence, is supported by the Spanish Evangelical Church of Lawrence and by voluntary contributions. It is a "center" for six specific functions, as they relate to rehabilitation: 1. Court appearances in behalf of persons arraigned for drug abuse; 2. Family contacts; 3. Activities of the "center"; 4. Social work; 5. Street work; and 6. Church Activities.

The van was located, and money contributed by members in a few short weeks after it was learned that CITA had need for such a van.

The presentation of the keys was during the services, and for the first time in the history of the church a (non-flash) camera was allowed to be used, to photograph Mr. DeJesus and the minister, the Rev. H. Allen Taddell.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE KEYS: The Rev. H. Allen Taddell of the Congregational Church and Mr. DeJesus.

THEY DROVE AWAY GLEEFULLY: Members of CITA pose with the Rev. Mr. Taddell, outside the church and in front of the van, after services.

Selectmen Next

Three residents of a development off Shawshen Avenue are scheduled to visit the Board of Selectmen, next Monday. They have problems they want to talk over.

Dick Morin, Dick Barstow and Peter Rinaldi were at the Planning Board meeting Tuesday night with their problems. The Planning Board was unable to help them.

They have bought lots of land that are extra "deep" - about 300 feet, and back up to the town well field, off Shawshen Ave. There is loam in front of the house, and on each side. There is loam also, in back, up to a distance of about forty feet. Beyond that, they told the Planning Board, there is none - and now all is mud and water. The developer, they alleged, has taken away all the loam, and they wanted to know what the Planning Board could do about it.

The Planning Board could not do much. By law their duties are restricted to streets, sidewalks, etc., and easements for public or private utilities. There is an existing bond, but it does not cover the problem of loam, on the house-lots.

Chairman Mort Grant of the Planning Board told the three men that he had been present, and had seen a truck load of loam leaving the premises. On inquiry he was told that the truck had arrived on the premises with that load of loam.

AN OX CART FOR THE LIBERTY POLE: Private Jeff Caville, and Water Bearer Bob Butters, of the Wilmington Minute Men have finished the work on the first ox-cart to be built in Wilmington during the twentieth century. A miniature ox-cart, it is to be used Sunday, in the Minute Men Liberty Pole exercises, with a parade beginning at the Wilmington Plaza at 1:30 pm.

Some of the Minute Men are to be present, in uniform, Saturday evening, in the Congregational Church, when the publisher of the Town Crier delivers his talk on Wilmington. The talk is scheduled to begin at 8:30.

Search for a new Planner

The Town of Wilmington, through its Planning Board and Town Manager are searching for a new Planner, for Wilmington, a man who will serve in a full time capacity.

Town Manager Sterling Morris has decided against the signing of a renewed contract with Prof. Charles Eliot of Cambridge, who has been Planner for Wilmington on a part time basis for several years. Prof. Eliot was planner while the town completed its 701 Program of studies, a period of about three years. The last zoning proposal for Planned Unit Development, was not accepted by the Town Meeting.

Morris told the Town Crier that he believed that the Professor had done his duty, for Wilmington, and that the time had come for Wilmington to implement the plan he had developed, or parts of it - through a different planner.

Eliot was to receive $400 a month, under the contract that was not signed by the Town Manager, for two days work. The contract had been signed by the Planning Board.

The time has come, the Town Manager said, for the Citizens Advisory Group to become active, and go to work. He is hoping to soon receive recommendations. The post of full time planner, in Wilmington, would pay in excess of $10,000 a year.

DICK MORIN, DAVE BARSTOW AND PETER RINALDI: Are about to learn of some of the intricacies of the law, relative to home building.

High School Sports

Baseball

The varsity won two and lost another, while tying a fourth in their recent outings in MVC play.

On Wednesday May 10th, the Wildcats topped Andover, 3-1 behind the excellent five-hit pitching of Phil Morrissey, making his initial varsity debut a successful one.

Thursday at Burlington the varsity built up an early 5-0 lead only to have the Red Devils chip away at the servings of Tom McGinley and tie the game in the last of the seventh, 5-5. The Wildcats pushed across the lead run in the top of the eighth but the rains came in the bottom of the eighth and the field was deemed unplayable and the score had to be reverted to the seventh and the entire game will be replayed next week.

Wayne Crosswell knocked in a pair of runs in the game, but the damaging blow was in injury to infielder Mark Peters, a dislocated shoulder, which will put Mark out of action for the rest of the season.

Friday at Chelmsford the boys bounced back into the win column exploding for a 13-1 triumph over the Lions as Artie Bibeau hurled five hit ball in his first starting assignment while fanning three and walking only one. Dave Stewart and Rich Lipski chipped in with a pair of hits each and a pair of RBI's apiece to pace the offensive attack. Monday at Tewksbury the Red Men topped the varsity 5-1 as Tom McGinley was again the hard luck loser (1-3 on the season) as his teammates did not provide him with the best of support.

The havees are 3-4 on the season winning only one of their recent outings. Coach Gagnon's boys topped Andover last week, 1-0 behind the fine pitching of Bob Stewart, but came up on the short end of 3-2, 4-3 scores with games at Burlington and Chelmsford.

Meanwhile, the freshmen are still winless (0-3) following losses to Andover East Jr. High and Chelmsford.

THE LOOK OF ANGRUSH: Coach James Gagnon's team was behind 4-1 when this picture was taken, in the fifth inning.

RICK UPSKI: Swings and misses.

ART BIBEAU: Drives in the Wildcat's only run of the afternoon with a sacrifice bunt, on Monday, May 15th.

Girl's Softball

The girls finally opened their season last Wednesday after a ten day lay-off due to rain, but came up short as Billerica defeated them, 7-1. Donna Freeman took the loss.

Thursday afternoon the girls bounced back to rout Andover, 15-2 with Sandy Farnsworth picking up the easy win as her teammates pounded out 18 hits, including four by Tammy Olivera.

Tuesday the girls overcame a 6-0 first inning deficit to pull out a 9-7 win at the expense of visiting Chelmsford.

Donna Freeman took over for Karen Boeri in the second inning and allowed Chelmsford only one run in the remaining six innings as her teammates scored six times in the fourth to make in 7-6 and the winning run came in the bottom of the fifth when our girls pushed across a pair of runs.

TOM MCGINLEY: Delivers another pitch in Monday's loss at Tewksbury.

Little League Hi-Lites

Seniors: Two excellent pitching duels featured last week's rain shortened schedule.

Jim Peters tossed a two-hitter at the Red Sox for a 3-0 Tiger triumph. Peters also combined with Dana Mullarky and Bob Reid for a no-hitter against the Orioles. However, base on balls gave the Orioles a 3-3 tie.

Majors: The White Sox had another well pitched game by Randy Foster in a 7-0 white-wash of the Red Sox. The Red Sox bounced back to gain a split for the week with a nine inning 3-2 triumph over the Tigers.

The most exciting contest of the week ended in a 13-13 stalemate between the Angels and the Indians, with the Indians rallying from an 11-0 third inning deficit to gain the tie. The loop's top slugger, Tom Gracia, belted his third seasonal round tripper for the Angels.

In other encounters, the Orioles nipped the Indians, 4-3, and the Yankees lost a pair, 10-4 to the Twins and 9-4 to the Indians.

Minors: Good relief pitching and timely hitting settled all four games last Saturday. Jim Letwinsky won in relief for the Dodgers against the Pirates, 15-9, while the Braves edged the Cubs.

Letters

Dear Mrs. Pierce:

In response to your letter to name withheld, I feel that opposing views to your stand should be expressed. As an American citizen, I feel it is my right to criticize the imperialistic actions of the American government in Vietnam. I feel that it is time for each citizen of this country to deeply contemplate the actions which have taken so many American and Vietnamese lives.

You mention in your letter that name withheld "must be getting his information from newspapers." You imply that newspapers are a poor source of information. Where else would you turn for information? With the disclosure of the Pentagon Papers, with columnists like Jack Anderson who happened to be awarded the Pulitzer Prize: is there a better source?

You go on to state that you and others are part of the "Silent Majority," but how can you remain silent when administration after administration have carried on this war without the consent of Congress, the voice of the American people. This action surely represents the total disrespect of parliamentary American Government, when the executive branch can wage war anytime, anywhere without the consent of Congress.

The justification that you give for this war is based on a fight between the kid next door and a bunch of thugs. Mrs. Pierce, we are 8000 miles away. This war is no immature quarrel between children.

Children do not fly B52 bombers that drop ton after ton of bombs that totally devastate that which stands in their path. Children do not fly fighters that drop napalm which at times miss directed targets. Children do not go into villages and massacre women and children. These are not the toys and games of children. They are the instruments and actions of supposedly mature adults!

Mrs. Pierce, you do me and others a great injustice when you imply "that men who were and are men have been fighting wars, while their more weak livered counterparts hid in caves." Mrs. Pierce, I am in no cave! Men have consciences and must live with them. It takes a great deal of courage to live with one's principles when one faces the consequences of imprisonment or knowing that his actions lead to leaving his home and family who he may never freely see again.

Mrs. Pierce, we do have one thing in common despite our differences: we both pray. I pray for the end of this war which has so gravely polarized so many people of this country. I pray for the release of all prisoners of war. I pray for the same return of name withheld and the other 60,000 names withheld. I pray for, in the words of Pope Paul VI: "No more war, war never again! Peace, it is peace which must guide the Destinies of peoples and of all mankind."

Hopefully yours,
Michael DiGregorio

Open letter to Residents of the Brand Avenue Area:

I know you are busy people: however, your dogs are running in packs biting and nipping at each other. I have called the dog officer twice, but it seems he is busy making a living. I have called the police twice. They have more professional things to do than chase your dogs up and down the streets. We do have a leash law!!

I do not enjoy picking up my neighbor's rubbish from my yard because your dogs like picking it out of her cans. If I want to fertilize my lawn, I will go out and buy regular fertilizer, thank you anyway!

Laws are made by the people, to be obeyed by the people.

If you cannot take care of your dog, here is the Animal Rescue League number - 426-9170. They will take care of them - kindly.

I love dogs, too, and my boys would love to have one; but I know that I cannot take good care of one now.

I guarantee if one of my children or myself is hurt by one of your dogs, especially this summer, I am not afraid to sue!

Be considerate!
Thinking of you,
Ann L. Yurek
P.S. Thank you, Sister Dolores for the paper.

SO THEY BROUGHT IN THE LOBSTER TOO: The Town Crier was down at the Mall, this week, and the new merchants got together for a photograph. Each of them, at least partly as a gag, had a display of his merchandise, which included a huge lobster from the Inland Fisheries. There are now five stores operating in the Mall, which is between Main and Lowell Streets.

With a Little Catsup

The Jackson Brothers might name the diner

The Jackson Brothers of Wilmington, builders of fine homes, do not know it, but they are naming the diner, at Silver Lake, near St. Dorothy's Church. It is to be renamed the Wedgewood Diner, because the new owner happens to live on Wedgewood Ave.

Wedgewood Ave. is one of the streets put in by the Jackson Brothers in the past few years, and the new owner lives in a home built by the Jackson Brothers.

Perhaps the Jackson Brothers would like to break a bottle of springwater, or maybe catsup, or whatever is used to christen diners, when the time comes for the renaming.

It's a long story - perhaps it could be entitled "How to be a railroad conductor and still be prosperous" - or perhaps it could have a title like "I did it just for the lady school bus drivers."

Leo LeBlanc is one of Wilming-

ton's better known and well-liked citizens. He has been a railroad conductor for 39 years, for the B&M, on the Lowell-Boston run, and any railroad conductor who is on such a run becomes well known to Wilmington people.

Leo has also a history of being the town dog-catcher, for many years, until he quit a few years ago. The business, he said, was going to the dogs.

It was at about the time that he sold his home on Clark Street and moved into a new home on Wedgewood Ave.

More recently Leo has been working part time with the Trombley Bus Company, the school bus contractors for Wilmington. He was sort of a dispatcher - boss, who checked up on the employees, to make certain that every school bus left on time, etc., etc. As such, Leo got to know many of the ladies who drive the school buses.

Those ladies would go up to Chris & Ray's Diner, at Silver Lake after they had finished their morning stint, and so, more often than not, did Leo. A cup of coffee, maybe a little breakfast, a social chat. It was all very nice.

Then Ray got an idea of how to make money in some town other than Wilmington. Leo bought out Ray. It became Chris & Leo's and the ladies and Leo would have their coffee and in a diner of which he was the part owner.

A few weeks ago, Chris had to leave too. Leo bought him out, and became the sole owner.

It is a long step, from railroad conductor to restaurateur, but Leo made it. He is up there every morning, not for a social chat, but to see that the customers get theirs - sunny side up. The place not only has a new look, but a new smile behind the counter.

This week the girls who work for the Trombley Bus got together. And Leo was presented with a great big bouquet, in appreciation.

LEO AND FLOWERS.

At 6:30 on Sunday evening, April 23rd at St. Thomas' Church, Kathryn Frances Knowlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Knowlton of 175 Wildwood Street became the bride of Michael Joseph Heider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heider of 326 Foster Road, Tewksbury. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Ernest Pearsall before an altar adorned with white gladiolas.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin gown, styled with a scalloped neckline, cathedral sleeves and full lace skirt. Her full length veil fell from a lace tiara. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Diane Burke of Wilmington, close friend of the bride served as maid of honor in a full length blue gown with lace bodice and crepe skirt. She wore a matching headpiece and carried a nosegay of light pink and blue carnations.

Miss Kathy Heider of Tewksbury, sister of the groom; Miss Karen Lesnik of Wilmington; Miss Denise LaVine of Woburn, close friends of the bride and Miss Arlene Amato, of Revere, cousin of the bride acted as bridesmaids. They wore gowns of pink crepe with lace bodices and pink velvet ribbon headpieces. They carried nosegays of hot pink, light pink and blue carnations.

New books at Memorial Library

"Dark Shore" by Susan Howatch: The author of Penmarria, has written another thriller. Unexplained and terrorizing events threaten the young bride as soon as she enters her husband's cliffside house.

"Quiet End of Evening" by Honor Tracy: Delightful, amusing and filled with local color and speech of the off-island Irish. This novel concerns the riotous escapades of Sabina and the laughable characters who aid efforts to save her family home from Harry, the unwelcome English invader.

"Concentration Camps, USA" by Roger Daniels: An expose of the grave injustice, shame, and infamy perpetrated upon the 112,000 Japanese-Americans shortly after Pearl Harbor. "A grim example of democracy at its worse."

Robert Gizzie of Tewksbury, close friend of the groom served as best man, while ushering duties were in charge of Dave Jeffries of Texas, cousin of the groom; Paul Heider of New Hampshire and Gene Heider of Tewksbury, brothers of the groom and John Knowlton, of Wilmington, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Knowlton chose a styled with a white chiffon top and full flowered bottom. She wore hot pink accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The mother of the groom was attired in a gown with yellow chiffon bodice and full flowered skirt. She wore an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the K of C Hall where Linda Spinney, a close friend of the bride was in charge of the guest book. Music was provided by the Hi-Lites.

The bride was educated in Wilmington Schools and is presently employed by Sweetheart Plastics of Wilmington. The groom, educated in Tewksbury is currently employed with NAPA on Woburn Street.

For traveling the new Mrs. Heider chose an orchid hot pants set with white accessories and a purple crushed velvet coat.

Following a wedding trip through New Hampshire, the couple will reside in Lowell.

MIKE HARRINGTON - VFW MEDALIST AND OTHER THINGS

Michael Harrington of Fair-meadow Road was named to read the Class Will, for the Class of 1972, Wilmington High School.
It was probably the finest reading of any class will, in the recent history of the High School.

To see Mike Harrington, for instance, standing on the curb stone of Church Street, a bunch of books under his arm, is to evoke a picture of one of the wilful, witty, wordy playwrights of the Irish theatre, the men who can emote on any subject, at will.

Mike was a guest of honor, at the recent birthday party of the Nee-Ellsworth Post of Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was a guest of honor because of his abilities in expressing the thoughts of American patriotism, and he was so honored.

Mike has been prominent in the Spotlighters, the Wilmington Little Theatre Group. Rightfully, he is one of their stars.

Mike is not only witty and word-full, he is exuberant and exilarating. It may possibly have been the finest performance, for any High School Class Will reading in Wilmington's history.

Don't forget - the Women's Club will be holding their annual plant sale next Thursday - at the home of Mrs. Norman Pederson on Federal St.

Gert Condrey celebrated a "39 and holding birthday" this week, and we do mean that "holding" Gert! What a gorgeous Gal, that one! Hope this Chick will look like that when she gets that far - and we're sure now that it's the attitude that does it. Congratulations and Best Wishes with Admiration, Gert!

Our hearts to you, Judy Morris, may God heal your hurting soon!

Did you notice the gorgeous garden on the corner of Clark and Washington Streets? The Town is looking great. Think the cleanup is really working there TM - Let's keep it that way folks.

Did you notice that Don Sughrue's new shape? A Diet Workshop Model! He's lost 80 pounds since fall - keep up the good work, Don. Don't forget out date for that bust - 10 pounds for each we've got it made. Cottage cheese and jello, here we come!

Installation for VFW on Saturday at 7:30 pm and you are all invited at the Hall. Buxton says, don't forget!

Should this Gal be scarce at the SC Seances for the next few weeks please excuse on acct. of swinging that early am and then RE after is using up most of the vitamins, never mind, going home at 2 am and up again at 5.

A few weeks ago, a Science article in the Boston Sunday Globe was on Willie's "rat factory" - Charles River Breeding Laboratories up on Ballardvale Street - Very interesting - and again this Gal learned a few facts - always welcome knowledge of any kind and of course the mere fact that these animals are helping mankind through research gives a warm feeling - Keep up the good work, Doc!

And ladies, the Middlesex County Extension Service, 105 Everett St., Concord will hold a two part lecture and demonstration on making bathing suits for the whole family from stretch fabric. Only one hitch - you must attend the first class in order to make sense of the second one - Register by writing to Concord Now! Classes will be held in our VFW Hall on Wed. May 31st and June 7th from 10 am to 11:30 - want to know more? - Call Hazel Backman.

Oops, that Legion "Do" reported last week is actually taking place this Saturday, not last - Initiation and Open House - your all invited. Sorry about the goof.

This Gal had a call from Alvin Blaisdell of the Main St. Blaisdells, all the way from Texas. Course in this spin, he talked to No. Two daughter, but the message got thru this time, Alvin. All your friends will be glad to see you over the 4th of July after your 20 year absence in the Service. Please catch up with this Gal too, so she can welcome you personally, please!

Speaking about the Service - that ever faithful Lennie Dobens, our insurance friend, tells this Chick that Steve McDougall Jr. of 50 Main St., is now home from the Service. Thanks, Len - what'd She do without you? - and welcome Home, Steve!

Did you hear what Bob Cavanaugh did on Mother's Day? Seems that those Cavanaugh daughters gave their mother, Betty one bathrobe for that occasion. Father Bob, eyeing the new one - just "magicked" the old one out of sight forever! Is he trying to tell you something, Betty? Ho - That's a great couple, those two. Should be more like them!

Then, do you have your hiking boots out for the Memorial Day Parade? Those DAV lads have been practicing with those new rifles out in back of the Hall for some time now. Couldn't figure out what all the shooting was on the side yard, with no hunting season, then finally was enlightened on Sunday, when she saw those lads' shadows behind the fence, and then they came out, one-by-one in their uniforms, with the rifles - To tell the truth, they were so well coordinated that she thought it was One gun, and she knows that will please them, since they have been much upset for a few years, that they never could tell, on signal, which gun was going off when - and this year they have New ones! Congratulations Boys!

Meanwhile - Back at the Hut, this Ma had a Great Time. Sat we saw No. Two Son et famille to visit and Sunday am the parade started with No. One Son's entourage and the Coffee and Donuts. Then No. One Daughter and Grand-boy came in without that Small One who was coughing with his father at home (Nana sure missed her) - Then - She did a couple hour's stint on that manuscript and at 3 visited No. One Son's Hut for dinner - where one by one of course the Clan gathered. Well, say this for Lucile, She's some daughter-in-law. She never blows her cool and takes the group in her stride. She just made another pan of lasagna and has us all to dinner - and Ma blew the calories that day! Cardboard Diet this week. But - certainly love that Group - and they are wonderful to this Ma!

And remember - Anonymous says - "People who are the most demand the least" and we know that's true!

Luv ya! Yum Yum!

ever faithful Lennie Dobens, our insurance friend, tells this Chick that Steve McDougall Jr. of 50 Main St., is now home from the Service. Thanks, Len - what'd She do without you? - and welcome Home, Steve!

Did you hear what Bob Cavanaugh did on Mother's Day? Seems that those Cavanaugh daughters gave their mother, Betty one bathrobe for that occasion. Father Bob, eyeing the new one - just "magicked" the old one out of sight forever! Is he trying to tell you something, Betty? Ho - That's a great couple, those two. Should be more like them!

Then, do you have your hiking boots out for the Memorial Day Parade? Those DAV lads have been practicing with those new rifles out in back of the Hall for some time now. Couldn't figure out what all the shooting was on the side yard, with no hunting season, then finally was enlightened on Sunday, when she saw those lads' shadows behind the fence, and then they came out, one-by-one in their uniforms, with the rifles - To tell the truth, they were so well coordinated that she thought it was One gun, and she knows that will please them, since they have been much upset for a few years, that they never could tell, on signal, which gun was going off when - and this year they have New ones! Congratulations Boys!

Meanwhile - Back at the Hut, this Ma had a Great Time. Sat we saw No. Two Son et famille to visit and Sunday am the parade started with No. One Son's entourage and the Coffee and Donuts. Then No. One Daughter and Grand-boy came in without that Small One who was coughing with his father at home (Nana sure missed her) - Then - She did a couple hour's stint on that manuscript and at 3 visited No. One Son's Hut for dinner - where one by one of course the Clan gathered. Well, say this for Lucile, She's some daughter-in-law. She never blows her cool and takes the group in her stride. She just made another pan of lasagna and has us all to dinner - and Ma blew the calories that day! Cardboard Diet this week. But - certainly love that Group - and they are wonderful to this Ma!

And remember - Anonymous says - "People who are the most demand the least" and we know that's true!

Luv ya! Yum Yum!

ever faithful Lennie Dob

Memorial Day

Marathon & Softball Exhibition

Wilmington's third annual marathon will be combined this year with a softball double-header in a Memorial Day Athletic Extravaganza. All events will center around Town Park, which will be the scene of a pair of softball clashes, featuring the first place teams in the Recreation Softball League's Industrial Division and the Town Division in the opener, followed by an All-Star game featuring the top players from the respective curfews.

The Marathon again will be in two parts: a five mile race for those 16 years of age and older and a shorter version for younger guys and gals.

The exact date and time has not yet been determined, but those wishing to enter the Marathon should apply in writing to Marathon Director, James Miceli at 11 Webber Street, Wilmington. State your full name, age, telephone number and address.

The Marathon is restricted to residents of Wilmington only.

Spring Hockey

Pee Wee A's

Coach Don Rossi's pucksters did it again, this time against a pesky Reading team with a 3-0 win. The boys are not sporting a 5-1 record good enough for second place in the league standings.

The opening stanza saw both clubs playing a vigorous forechecking and back-checking game with neither team able to score. Brian Tighe finally lit the lamp at 3:27 of the second frame with a rush to beat the Reading goalie with a wrist shot to the far corner. As the game turned out, Tighe's score would have been enough, but at 6:11, Tom Gracia made it 2-0 with Paul Sullivan assisting. Mike Carlin closed out the scoring at 10:11 of the period with Ron Marasco assisting.

The third frame was scoreless despite a wide 10-2 shots on goal advantage for our boys. A fine effort was turned in by Wilmington's defense throughout allowing Reading only six shots on goal in the contest. The Pee-Wees will finish off the first half of their spring league competition this Saturday evening with a 6:50 pm encounter with Winthrop at the Youth Ice Arena.

Squirt A's

The squirts went down to their second defeat of the season at the hands of a hard skating and well balanced Stoneham team 12-2 on Sunday. The lone bright spot was the offensive work of Richard Robinson, who scored both of the Wilmington goals.

The team hopes to regain their winning ways next Sunday, May 21st against Medford with face-off listed for 7:10 pm. A win would give the squirts a 5-2 record for the first half of the spring league.

Sauir B's

Dick Gunn's skaters were outgunned in a very physical contest last Saturday evening at Hockey Town by the Melrose Flyers. Wilmington was over-powered very early in the contest as the Flyers scored six unanswered goals in the opening period.

Our boys seemed to get more organized and stronger as the last two periods progressed and held the Flyers to only two goals each in the 2nd and 3rd frames. The second period saw a fine goal by Rick Yettman for the squirts assisted by Peter Orlando. In spite of the final 10-1 score against Wilmington, goalie Mat DePasquale continued to prove his worth in net with aggressive, alert goal-tending. The boys return to action Saturday with a 4:20 pm encounter at Melrose against the Cowboys.

Mites

Fans at the Youth Arena were treated to one of the most exciting games of the season Monday night as the Mites battled from behind to tie Reading, 4-4 with only 13 seconds left in the contest.

Trailing throughout, Shawn War-ford scored his second goal of the game with five minutes left in the third period closing the gap to one, 4-3. Ronnie Greenberg scored the equalizer with his second goal of the evening as John Robson stole the puck in the Reading zone and passed to Greenberg who brought the crowd and his teammates to an ecstatic finish with his heroic score.

Excellent defense was the name of the game when Jeff Stoeffer, Ed Moran, Bob Magliozza, Ron Cahill, Jeff Brown and George Boudreau backed up goalie John Gironx in the waning moments to keep the score within reach.

BANTAM A's WIN - LOOSE - TIE

Coach Fitch's Bantam A's lost to first place Peabody, 7-4 on April 26th in a good, fast skating close checking game at Youth Arena.

Scorers were Bob Kelly, Gordie Fitch, Bob Aprile and Ken DeMaggio. Assistants went to Bob Aprile, Russ Myers, Ken DeMaggio, Bob Kelly and Paul Marasco.

April 30th at the Youth Arena found the Bantams pitted against a strong Reading team. Even though Wilmington had 24 shots on net, the score remained 5-2 with Wilmington taking the loss. Gracia scored in the first period unassisted while DeMaggio netted one in the third period with Aprile helping out.

Bouncing back in great style, Wilmington trounced a strong Cambridge team 5-3 on May 10th at the Youth Arena. Cambridge scored twice in the first period and then not again until 3:34 of the third period.

Russ Myers came through in the second frame with one and Ken Gray, Bob Aprile, Gordie Fitch, and John Fairweather each scored one in the third stanza. Assisting were Aprile, Myers, DeMaggio with Paul Marasco for 2. Roberts and Cresitelli were excellent in goal.

May 16th at the Youth Arena, Wilmington met the Burlington Bantams for a scrimmage of which the outcome was a 2-2 tie. John Fairweather and Bob Aprile were the scorers.

Tuesday at the Youth Arena, Wilmington played Medford in a league game whipping them 5-2. A good team effort commented Coach Fitch.

Aprile garnered two with Kelly, DeMaggio and Fitch each 1 red lighter. Assisting were Gracia for 2, Gray, Fitch and Marasco 1 each. Paul Cresitelli was man of the hour in the goal with a shutout. Don Roberts performed well in goal with 2 getting by.

Thursday will find the "A" team facing off with Jack Pellerin's Bantam team at 9 at the Youth Arena.

The body is built to be active. Vigorous physical activity becomes almost a necessity if one is to have a body which maintains its healthy state.

Games, sports, dancing and exercising are great ways to keep the body in shape.

However, do not think that an occasional fling at any of these activities is going to do the job. One must have a strict regimen of various physical activities in order to insure his physical health and well-being.

Why not set up a schedule for yourself and your family?

To the Editor:

Every time I pick up the Town Crier to read it, I always have quite a time trying to figure out the mistakes that are printed.

In every edition of your paper, there are at least ten mistakes in spelling of extremely simple words, and for a small newspaper with only ten pages that is not so hot.

As we hear every day in school, "If you don't know how to spell a word, look it up in the dictionary."

And so, Town Crier, if you can't spell right, why not take some of the tax money and use it for something good for a change, like a dictionary?
